

J. MICHAEL BAILEY

Shareholder

BIOGRAPHY

Michael Bailey is a shareholder in the litigation and government relations departments and concentrates his practice on commercial and environmental litigation as well as government relations, lobbying and political law. His government relations practice includes lobbying at the Utah State Legislature as well as petitioning county and city governments throughout the State of Utah. He has also lobbied before various state agencies. Mr. Bailey's legal advice has long been relied upon by candidates and elected officials from both political parties and for 12 years served as chief legal counsel for a United States Congressman. His background in politics and legislative affairs with years of experience as a commercial trial lawyer provides him with unique skills and perspective that allows him to assist clients and solve complicated problems with creative solutions.

In the area of election law, Mr. Bailey represented 37 former members of Congress in the landmark case, McConnell v. FEC, before the United States Supreme Court.

Mr. Bailey has significant experience in litigation before federal and state courts. He has tried cases before the District Courts of the United States and State of Utah and has argued cases before the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals, the Utah Supreme Court and the Utah Court of Appeals. He also has significant experience before state and federal agencies. He is a member of the Utah State Bar, Arizona State Bar, American Bar Association, Order of the Barristers and American Inn of Court VII. Mr. Bailey is an Adjunct Professor of Election Law and Politics at the J. Reuben Clark School of Law at Brigham Young University and has lectured at the Hinckley Institute of Politics at the University of Utah. He currently serves on the Executive Committee of the United States Golf Association.

Mr. Bailey has served as a member of the firm's Board of Directors and as chair of the firm's Hiring Committee. He is rated in Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business and maintains an AV® Preeminent™ rating from Martindale Hubbell.
